

African Studies Seminar

Trinity Term 2019

Thursdays, 5pm

St Antony's College, Pavilion Room

- 2 May
(Week 1)      The Act of Living: Street Life, Marginality and Development in Urban Ethiopia (Book Launch)
Marco Di Nunzio (Department of Anthropology, University of Birmingham)
- 9 May
(Week 2)      Marking the 25th Commemoration of the Genocide Against the Tutsi in Rwanda
Film screening "The Faces We Lost" (directed by Piotr Cieplak) and panel discussion with survivors of the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda
Julia Viebach (African Studies Centre, University of Oxford)
- 16 May
(Week 3)      Comparing the Copperbelt Research Seminar: Cultural Production in Africa's Extractive Communities, 1.15pm – 6.30pm
Speakers: Sarah Van Beurden (Ohio State University; Ghent), Enid Guene (Oxford), David Pratten (Oxford), Ramon Sarró (Oxford), Marina P. Temudo (Lisbon)
Keynote (5 pm): The Earth Compels: Forces of Destruction and Creation in the History of African Popular Culture
Karin Barber (Department of Anthropology, University of Birmingham)
- 23 May
(Week 4)      João Lourenço's reform agenda in post Dos Santos Angola: Ambiguities and asymmetries
Rui Verde (Visiting Professor, African Studies Centre, University of Oxford)

Convenors: Miles Tendi, Liz Fouksman african.studies@africa.ox.ac.uk

In case of cancellation or venue changes, please refer to our website
(<http://www.africanstudies.ox.ac.uk>) for updated information