

South Africa Discussion Group

Trinity Term 2019

Meets on Tuesdays at 5 in the Pavilion Room, St Antony's College

Additional events have been included

30th April – no meeting but please note:

E Dai? Charity film screening in Aid of Mozambique after Cyclone Idai. Please join us on Tuesday, 30 April 2019, 5.30-8pm, at the Nissan Theatre, St Antony's College

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/e-dai-charity-film-screening-after-cyclone-idai-tickets-59883679698>

7th May - Anne Heffernan (Durham) – Limpopo's Legacy: Student Politics & Democracy in South Africa – talk and book launch

14th May – Michael 't Sas Rolfes (School of Geography, Oxford) - Rhino poaching and lion farming: the political economy of contemporary South African wildlife conservation

21st May – Deborah Posel (Leverhulme Visiting Professor, University College, London) - Car Troubles: Race on the Road (part of a series on the history and politics of consumption in South Africa)

28th May – Discussion of the South African elections and recent politics, led by Saul Musker (Blavatnik School of Government) and other students.

4th June – Crispian Olver (Univ of the Witwatersrand, author of How to Steal a City) – on municipal politics and corruption

11th June – University of Durham, Anne Heffernan, Rachel Johnson and Laura Evans are organizing a day workshop in Durham (before ECAS) on 'Seeing the Struggle: Decentring South Africa's Transition to Democracy, c. 1984-2004' (exploring different ways of framing and researching the 'long transition' that offer new perspectives).

17-18th June – Bonavero Institute of Human Rights, Oxford is co-organising a conference on Citizenship and Accountability: Litigating Customary Law and Traditional Leadership under South Africa's Democratic Constitution

The event requires registration through this Eventbrite link by noon on Monday 27 May 2019.

Convenors: William.beinart@sant.ox.ac.uk, Colin Bundy, Thomas Cousins.